The Honorable William Casey III
Director of C.I.A.
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

[redacted] ABC-TV Network News Producer of "Issues and Answers", "This Week with David Brinkley", and presently Producer of News Programming for Public Affairs Satellite System, Inc., has been elected the new President of the American News Women's Club.

The Inauguration of [redacted] as President will take place on Tuesday, September 27, 1983, at 5 p.m. in the Dirksen Building, Room 106, on Capitol Hill in Washington.

We are planning a big party. The Vice President of the United States, the Honorable George Bush, will preside. Members of the Reagan White House and Cabinet; Democrats and Republicans from the Senate and the House; and our most prominent women in Government... will be there.

The evening in honor of [redacted] who was born and bred in New York City will be called "A New York Night" with a roast of [redacted] career and East Side - West Side food, cocktails and music at the Dirksen Room.

The American News Women's Club, the oldest women's communications group in Washington, has a membership of approximately 500 professional journalists, including the honorary membership of every First Lady of the United States, from Mrs. Herbert Hoover to Mrs. Nancy Reagan.

All of us, especially [redacted], would be honored if you would join us, as our special guest, for the American News Women's Inaugural Party.

Please R.S.V.P. to me: [redacted] Vice President, American News Women's Club at the E. Bruce Harrison Company, 605 14th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20005; Telephone: 638-1200. We would like to make plans to introduce you to our guests.

I shall be happy to supply you with any further details if you wish.
